

Brian K. Morgan
Regional Supervisor

Ohio Department of Commerce
Division of Financial Institutions

Brian K. Morgan has been involved in the supervision and regulation of banks, savings and loan associations, and savings banks for over 30 years. He began his career as a field examiner in 1985 with the Federal Deposit Insurance Company (FDIC) before joining the Ohio Division of Financial Institutions (Division) in 1990. With the Division he has held the positions of field examiner, Training Coordinator and has been Regional Supervisor since 1996. Brian oversees a staff of six examiners and has supervisory responsibility for thirty-two financial institutions in Northwest Ohio.

Brian is a graduate of the Ohio Bankers League, Bank Leadership Institute and earned his Bachelor of Arts in Accounting and Business Administration from the Bluffton University in May, 1982.