This year's program is Tuesday, June 16, 2015, at the Hilton Columbus at Easton, 3900 Chagrin Drive, Columbus, Ohio. The Ohio Division of Financial Institutions will host the evening reception on Monday, June 15, from 6 to 8 pm. This year, there is one-time fee of $130 which includes both the evening reception and the meeting, and the deadline for registering is June 11.

A block of 80 rooms has been reserved at the Hilton for the evening of Monday, June 15 at the rate of $185 per night plus applicable taxes. To make reservations before the cut-off date of May 29, please call (614) 414-5000 and mention the 2015 Ohio Bankers Day when making your reservation.

Attached is an agenda for this year's program, which we are very excited about. Key morning speakers include Doreen Eberly, Director of Risk Management Supervision for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, and Professor Lamont Black of DePaul University who will address the local community banking movement.

Our mid-morning program will include three breakout sessions on Common Examination Findings and Hot Topics from the state level, Cyber Security for Bank CEOs, and State of Ohio Lending Programs for Community Banks.

At noon we'll break for lunch and hear from new Director of Commerce Jacqueline Williams, and Deputy Superintendent Kevin Allard will wrap up the day with an overview of Ohio Banking Conditions and results from the Division's recently implemented Post-Exam Survey.

If you have any questions regarding registration, please contact Kim Chancy of the Conference of State Bank Supervisors at (202) 802-9554 or kchancy@csbs.org. Or you may call my assistant Ruth Young at (614) 644-7506, or by email at ryoung@com.state.oh.us.
